

I CAN FEEL YOUR STORM

Words by J. Fernando Ortega

Vocal Solo by John A. Schreiner

I can remember you
Tall in the fading light
I held to the good in you
I knew the danger in your eyes
You were a broken one
And I could feel your storm
Falling over me

(Chorus)

Fall on my old day
Here and gone
Fall on this memory
That carries on
Only God can forgive us
And change the things we've done
Only He can change what's done

Do you remember me
Small in the growing shadow
Child that you could not see
The son of your straight and narrow
Now I am a broken one
And I can feel the storm
Falling over me
